

Literacy Week Celebrations

January 23rd – 27th

Monday, Jan. 23

Students from the JK/SK, 1/2, 2/3, 3/4 classrooms will be going to the Grand Theatre to see the play 'The Bockety World of Henry & Bucket'. This is Literacy in action!

Tuesday, Jan. 24

The Kingston Chief of Police will be our Guest Reader – he will read 'Mr. Peabody's Apples'. It has a wonderful message about not judging others.

Wednesday, Jan. 25

At 6:00 pm, our VP will be calling students at home to catch them reading.

Thursday, Jan. 26

Students are invited to come to school dressed as their favourite storybook character.

Friday, Jan. 27

For 20 minutes in the morning, students will 'drop everything and read'.

Throughout the week, we will be announcing trivia questions on the morning announcements.

Every day, teachers will nominate two exceptional readers per classroom. Students' names will be recorded and they will receive a coupon to pick a book at the Parent Council Book Exchange later in the spring!

Enjoy yourself with good books!
